BOND OF INDEMNITY

Charles A. Dodge, Boston Town of Southborough, Mass.

and to

Charles L. Williams, Boston

Bond of $3,000 during construction work of the Head & Meter Chambers of the Weston Aqueduct in Southborough, MA.

July 6, 1903

BOND OF INDEMNITY.

(Under Chapter 339, Acts of 1897.)

Know all Men by these Presents,

THAT Thomas H. Gill and John F. Gill, both of Somerville, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, are held and firmly bound unto the town of Southborough in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000), lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said town, for which payment, well and truly to be made, they bind themselves and their heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Whereas, The said Thomas H. Gill and John F. Gill have made a contract with the Commonwealth, acting by the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Board, bearing date the nineteenth day of June, 1902, for the performance of certain work for said Board, to wit: Constructing Section 1 of the Westow Aqueduct in Southborough, Mass.,

And, Whereas, for the due performance of said work it may be necessary for the said Thomas H. Gill and John F. Gill to employ labor and to bring into said town laborers not having their residence therein;

Now, the condition of this obligation is such, That if the said Thomas H. Gill and John F. Gill shall indemnify and save harmless the said town against any loss, expense or charges that said town may legally incur because of pauper or indigent employes having no settlement therein and brought into said town for the performance of the work under this contract, then this obligation shall be void; otherwise it shall remain in full force and virtue.

In Witness Whereof, the said Thomas H. Gill and John F. Gill hereto set their hands and seals this nineteenth day of June, 1902.
